

MEDICAL CANNABIS

Physician Perspective

38%

have recommended cannabis to patients as a treatment option

30%

have not recommended cannabis to patients as a treatment option, but would consider it

9%

have no interest in recommending cannabis to patients as a treatment option

22%

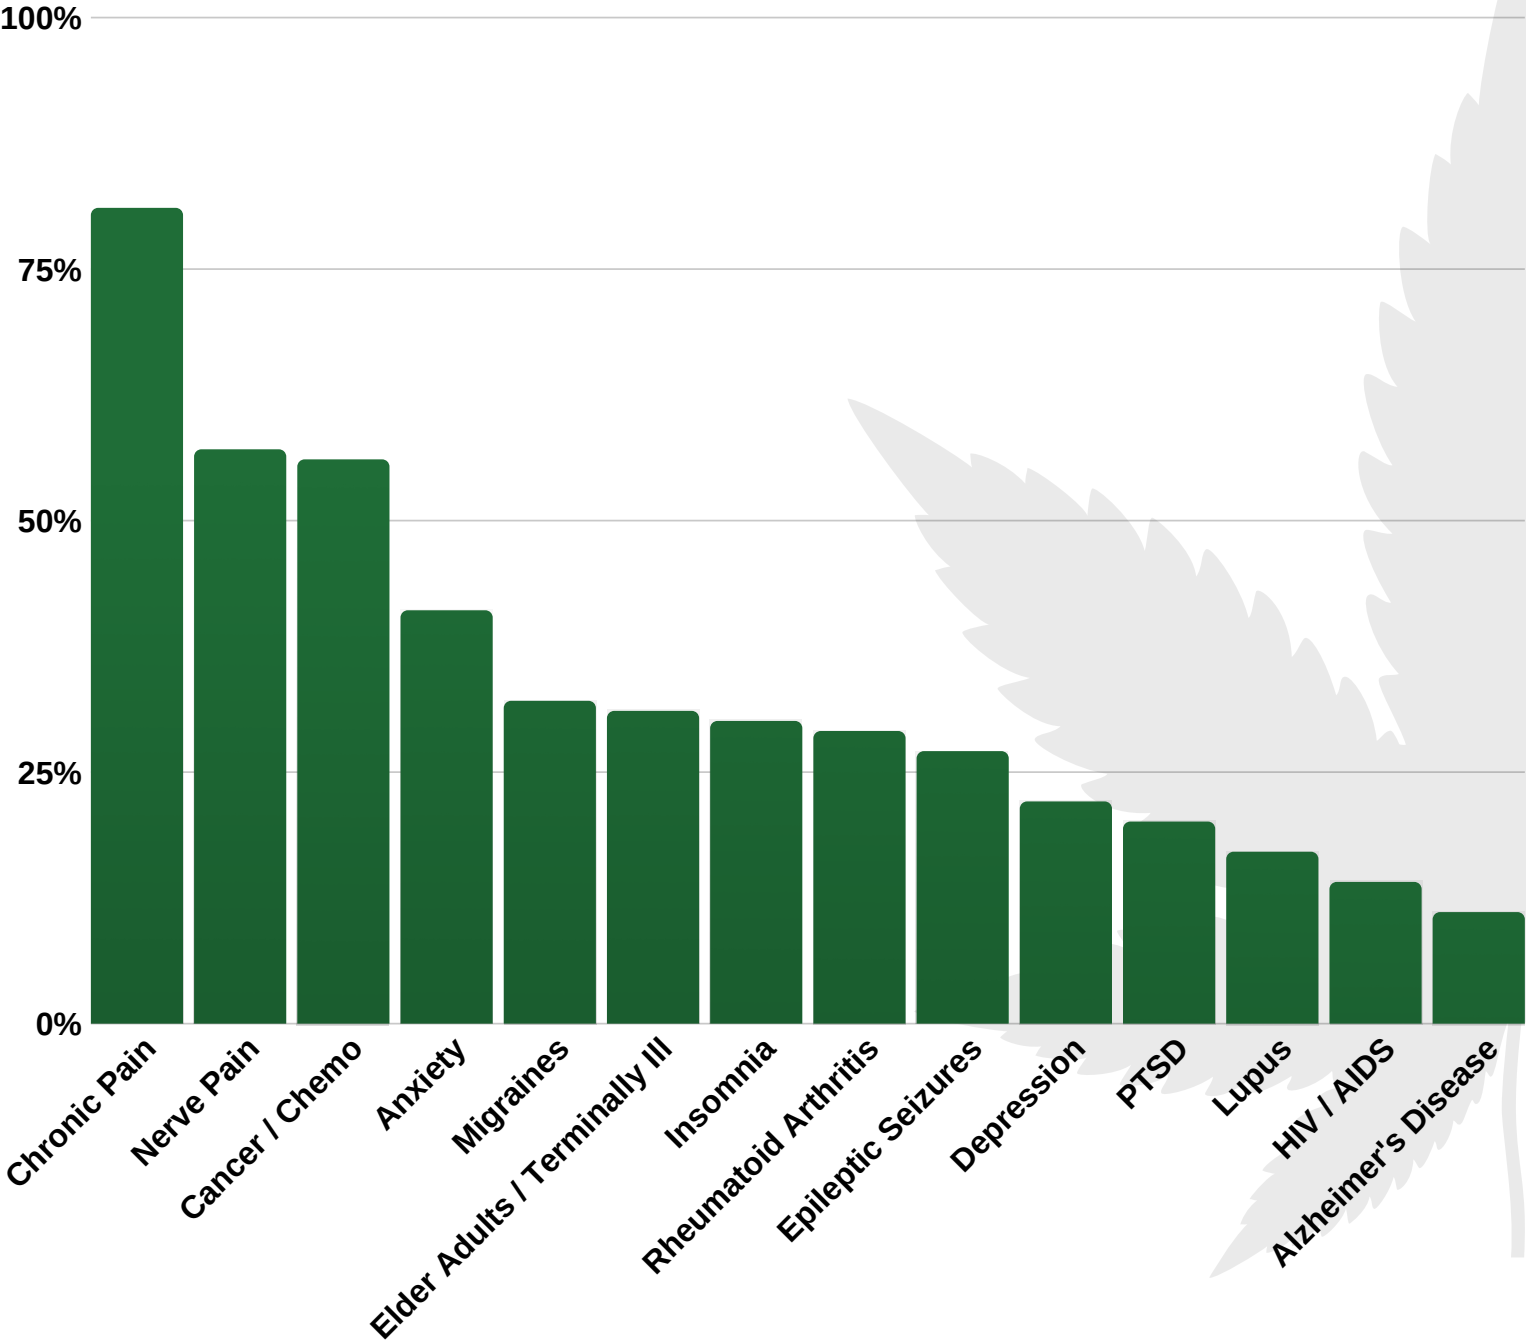

require more knowledge on the subject before they would recommend cannabis to patients as a treatment option

Rx

63%

of patients who received recommendations for medical cannabis experienced positive results

Conditions for Which Medical Cannabis is Most Recommended

Top reasons ranked why physicians are against recommending medical cannabis:

48%

Lack of scientific evidence

48%

Not enough research has been done to prove its safety

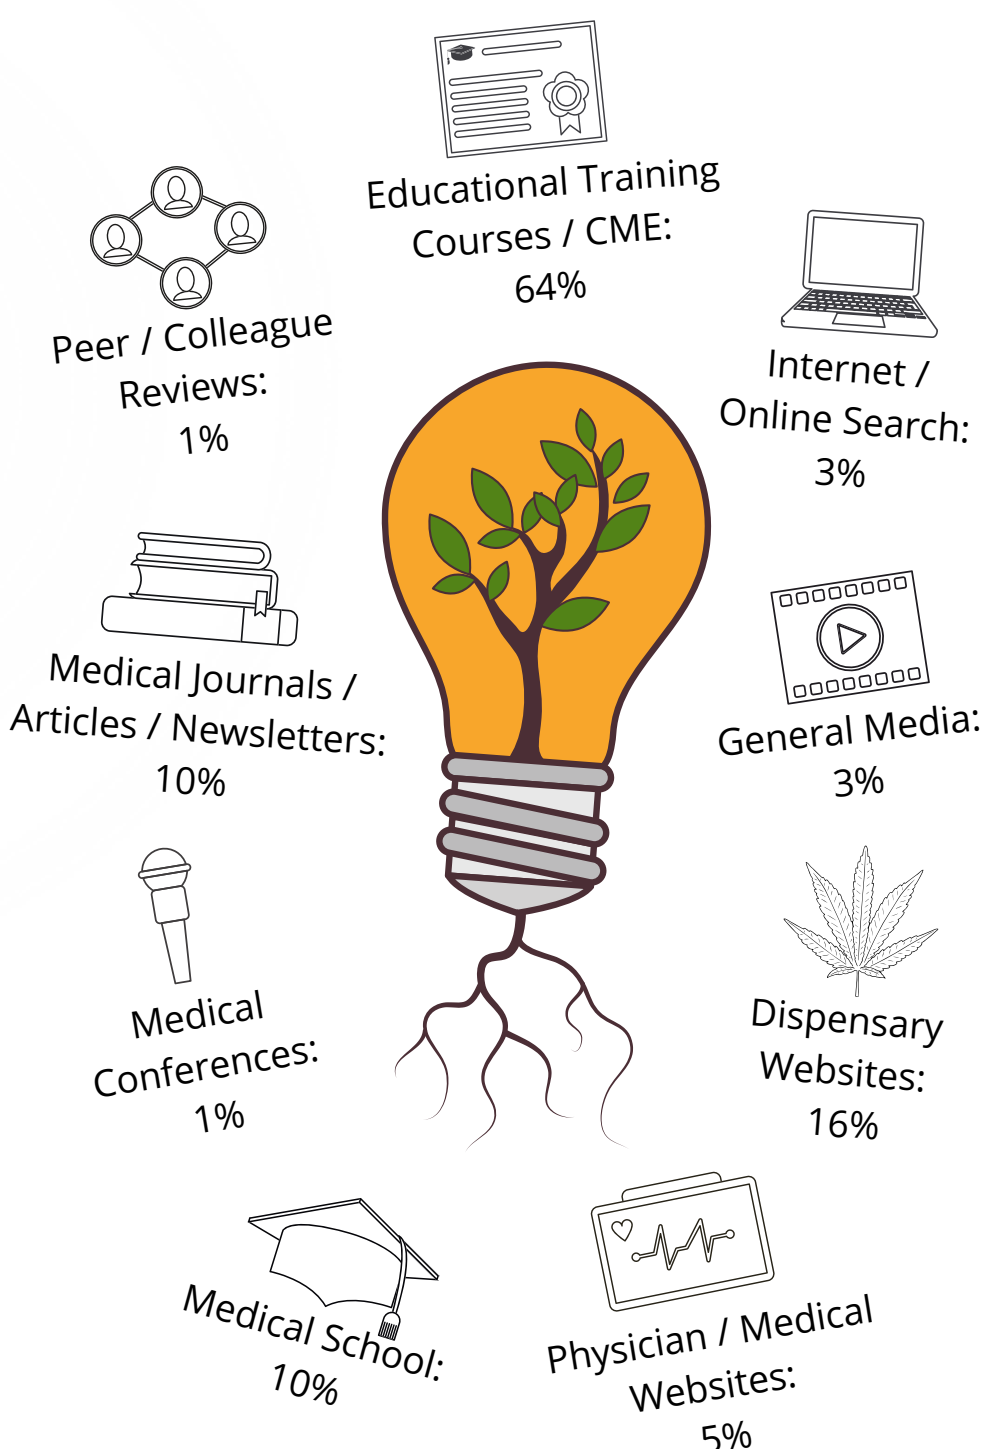

30%

Principle / Overall negative stigma associated with it

22%

Uncertainty over the source of where the marijuana is grown

Top methods for receiving up-to-date information surrounding medical cannabis:

67% believe medical cannabis is a valuable treatment option for patients, while 28% still require more information on the subject to determine.

PHYSICIANS IN SUPPORT OF THE LEGALIZATION OF MEDICAL CANNABIS ON A NATIONAL LEVEL

Undecided
29.3%

No
8.1%

Yes
62.6%